

It is my hope that you will toughen the national do not call list law to the same standards that are in Wisconsin. In this very hectic world that we live in today, our privacy at home should be a right not to be taken away by annoying telemarketers.